

PRESS RELEASE OCTOBER 14 2014

Up and coming actors nominated for Stockholm Rising Star Award

Actors such as Alicia Vikander and Nermina Lukac have previously been presented the award. Now it is time for this year's rising star to start shining.

The Stockholm Rising Star Award is granted an actor or actress who's showing signs of becoming tomorrow's next big star. The idea is to give the actor an early career lift, and to provide them with a vast movie industry network at the Stockholm International Film Festival.

Last year the award went to Adam Lundgren, who had his breakthrough with Shed No Tears.

The nominees:

Julia Ragnarsson (Stockholm Stories),

David Fukamachi-Regnfors (Gentlemen),

Iggy Malmberg (Something Must Break),

Saga Becker (Something Must Break)

Félice Jankell (Young Sophie Bell) and

Filip Berg (Stockholm Stories).

The jury is led by Anna Carlson, head of Teaterförbundet, and is otherwise made up of; Jan Göransson, press manager Swedish Film Institute; Lisa Rosengren, project manager Film&TV-Producenterna; and actors Johan Rabaeus and Annika Hallin.

The 25th Stockholm International Film Festival November 5-16 2014.

Stockholm International Film Festival started in 1990 and is today one of the leading competitive film festivals in Europe. The festival takes place every year in November with more than 200 films from more than 60 countries. More than a festival: we organize exclusive screenings and the popular Summer Cinema – an outdoor mini-festival. Every year in spring the Stockholm International Film Festival Junior brings the latest films to youngsters between 6 and 16 years of age.

WE LOVE FILM!
