Mary Kom wins the Brons horse at Stockholm International Film Festival Junior

The Jury of the 16th Stockholm Film Festival Junior has made their decisions. The winner of the Bronze horse is Indian film Mary Kom by Omung Kumar.

The Brons Horse for Best film was presented to Mary Kom by Omung Kumar. Mary Kom tells the true story of boxing champion Mary Kom and her struggles to be a boxer.

Motivation of the jury:

The film tells the compelling story of Mary Kom, whose life can easily be compared to one's own. Equally, the film gives the viewer the opportunity to be acquainted with Indian life and culture. The strong characters show us that with a clear goal and a strong will one's dreams can be realized. The thoughtful choice of music makes the film even more vibrant and exciting. A strong and inspiring film.

The Juryprize, Best film for children 6-10 years goes to The Games Maker by Juan Pablo Buscarini. A film about a young boy whose love of board games catapults him into the fantastical and competitive world of game invention.

Motivation of the jury:

An exciting film full of laughter and imagination. With imaginative characters and sensational settings, the film leaves you with a feeling of exhilaration and joy. A great story for anyone who ever dreamed of inventing something of their own.

The 26th Stockholm International Film Festival November 11-22 2015.

Stockholm International Film Festival started in 1990 and is today one of the leading competitive film festivals in Europe. The festival takes place every year in November with more than 200 films from more than 60 countries. More than a festival: we organize exclusive screenings and the popular Summer Cinema – an outdoor mini-festival. Every year in spring the Stockholm International Film Festival Junior brings the latest films to youngsters between 6 and 16 years of age.

WE LOVE FILM!
