

Stockholm Film Festival gives accredited journalists access to all film screenings

In response to high demand, the Stockholm International Film Festival has decided to make all the screenings in the festival program available for journalists.

Stockholm Film Festival gives accredited journalists access to all screenings daytime, evening and weekend upon availability, as the demand has been great.

Only accredited journalists will have access to the press screenings. And for those who haven't been accredited, www.stockholmfilmfestival.se/en/press/press-accreditation-2015

Screen festival films in the Stockholm Film Festival Video Library

Stockholm Film Festival announces partnership with Cinando Video Library, a digital solution which allows festivals to show films online, in streaming. Implying that you as an accredited journalist will be able to see a selection of films from the festival in the Stockholm Film Festival Video Library. The films will be available for screening throughout the festival period, either from home or at the press center at Hotel Kungsträdgården.

Accredited journalists will receive a login to the Stockholm International Film Festival Video Library on the email address specified in the accreditation.
