

Up and coming actors nominated for Stockholm Rising Star Award

Actors such as Alicia Vikander and Adam Lundgren have previously been presented the award. Now it is time for this year's rising star to start shining.

The Stockholm Rising Star Award is granted an actor or actress who is showing signs of becoming tomorrow's next big star. The idea is to give the actor an early career lift and to provide them with a vast movie industry network at the Stockholm International Film Festival.

Last year the award went to Aliette Opheim, who had her breakthrough with Det vita folket (2015).

The nominees:

Karin Franz Korlöf (Den allvarsamma leken)

Anton Lundqvist (En underbar jävla jul).

William Spetz (Jag älskar dig – en skilsmässokomedi)

Molly Nutley (Alena)

Filip Berg (En man som heter Ove)

The jury is led by Anna Carlson, head of Teaterförbundet. The other members are Jan Göransson, press manager Swedish Film Institute, Lisa Rosengren, project manager at Film&TV-Producenterna and actors Sofia Ledarp and Rikard Wolff. The jury reviews all Swedish films from November to November to find the best up and coming actors.
